This event is organized every year during PRAVAH for the under privileged children. During this event a variety of fun activities and games are organized for these children. Besides this, a cultural program is also organized showcasing performances of these children. BHAGIRATH intends to showcase celebration instead of competition among the participants. This event brings this weak section of the society into notice of the people to invoke and spread a noble thought of coming forward for contributing towards education, rehabilitation and empowerment of the socially disadvantaged children.

This year the following two schools of under privileged children were invited for participating in the event :

- i. Sajal Prakhar Madhyamik Vidhyalaya (Free Education) Kacchibasti, Jagatpura, Jaipur
- ii. Sakhi Bal Niketan (Free Education), Kacchi Basti, Jaipur.

The event started with welcome ceremony of around 200 children accompanied by their teachers from the above schools. Beginning with Yoga, the children presented dance and song performances. Some students of Sajal Prakhar Madhyamik Vidhyalaya presented a Fancy Dress Show. Children also enjoyed the magic show and had fun at various food counters and play zones. Then all the children had lunch in the college canteen. At the end of the event, gift packs and stationery were distributed among the children.
