

In-House Summer Internship Program in 2018-19

An initiative was taken by Civil Engineering Department, SKIT for the "In house summer internship program" for the third-year students. The duration of this program was 60 days which constitutes both software as well as site training. Students were taken to many building as well as road construction sites for practical training.

